The commission's purpose is to plan, coordinate and evaluate CFHB editions projects. The commission's members are therefore in permanent contact. Once a CFHB project is suggested either to the chair or any other member of the commission, the commission members discuss (via e-mail) about the project's relevance for the series. Once approved, all further details concerning the edition of the CFHB volume have to be discussed between the authors and the editors of the national series.

Report 2016–2022

The CFHB commission had its last regular internal meeting at the 23rd International Congress of Byzantine Studies in Belgrade, August 2016.

No new members were elected at this meeting; thus, as of 2016, the following persons were members of the CFHB commission:

Andreas Rhoby (chair); Theodora Antonopoulou; John Duffy; Wolfram Hörandner; Athanasios Kambylis; Foteini Kolovou; Riccardo Maisano; Emilie van Opstall

The persons in bold were present at the Belgrade meeting.

As of 2022, the situation has changed: Both Wolfram Hörandner and Athanasios Kambylis sadly passed away in 2021. In addition, John Duffy and Riccardo Maisano have announced their intention to resign from the Commission.

In the run-up to the Venice Congress, discussions were held among the remaining members on the admission of new members. The AIEB Presidium was informed about this procedure.

It was agreed on the following new members:

Alessandra Bucossi, Reinhard Ceulemans, Athanasios Markopoulos, Juan Signes Codoñer

Thus, in the period 2022-2026, the Commission will consist of the following members:

- Andreas Rhoby (chair)
- Theodora Antonopoulou
- Alessandra Bucossi

- Reinhard Ceulemans
- Foteini Kolovou
- Athanasios Markopoulos
- Emilie van Opstall
- Juan Signes Codoñer

 Further details about the CFHB commission can be found at the AIEB website: <https://aiebnet.gr/commissions/>

Traditionally, all editors were asked about the status of their editorial projects in the run-up to the congress.
 Andreas Rhoby will present a summary of the reports both at the internal meeting of the CFHB commission as well as at the General Assembly.
